2. Event Date: 11th September 2023

3. Event Venue: Room No. 401

4. Event Detail:

A guidance lecture on career opportunities in commerce was organised under the aegis of IQAC on 11th September 2023 at 12 noon in room no.301 for junior college students. This event, aptly titled "A Career Guidance Lecture," had a specific purpose: to ensure that students were equipped with the necessary information to make informed decisions about their future academic paths. This lecture was conducted by one of the esteemed faculty members Mr. Harshad Janjarkiya. This enlightening event had 50 eager students in attendance, all from the commerce stream, and it sought to shed light on the diverse career opportunities available to them.

The program delved into the pros and cons of different career paths, enabling students to understand how to navigate their way toward a specific career and its growth potential. It was a valuable opportunity for these young minds to gain knowledge and insights that would help shape their academic and professional journeys. As the event came to a close, the recommendations for future events were overwhelmingly positive. Attendees found the seminar to be an enlightening experience, filled with informative ideas and knowledge. It served as a guiding beacon, helping students make more informed decisions about their academic and career futures. This event will undoubtedly serve as a valuable benchmark for future seminars and lectures, ensuring that students continue to receive the guidance they need to embark on their path toward a better future.

The lecture series, guided by the IQAC, brought together all the heads of the respective departments to provide authentic insights into the various degree programs available in the college, ensuring that students could make well-informed choices.
